Come away, leave the day
Fall into a dream
Beauty bare, sweet despair
Love remains unseen

Sunlight fades to lunar shades
That disappear from view
Lost inside an endless dream of you

Whispering, lingering
'Till the sting of dawn
Broken spell, empty shell
Paradise is gone

Far aways and sad refrains
Of days we never knew
Melt into an endless dream of you

Sunlight fades to lunar shades
That disappear from view
Lost inside an endless dream of you

Moon and snow, winter glow
Luminescent scene
Twilight time, crystalline
Frozen in between
