I can show a young girl what they really stand for,

Let it go...
Can?t let this thing called love get away from you
Feel free right now, go do what you want to do
Can?t let nobody take it away, from you, from me, from we
No time for moping around, are you kidding?
And no time for negative vibes, cause I?m winning
It?s been a long week, I put in my hardest
Gonna live my life, feels so good to get it right

So I like what I see when I?m looking at me
When I?m walking past the mirror
Don't stress through the night, at a time in my life
Ain?t worried about if you feel it
Got my head on straight, I got my vibe right
I aint gonna let you kill it
You see I wouldn?t change my life, my life?s just...

Fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
Fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
Just fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
You see I wouldn't change my life, my life's just fine

Feels so good, when you're doing all the things that you want to do
Get the best out of life, Treat Yourself to something new
Keep your head up high
In yourself, believe in you, believe in me
Having a really good time, I'm not complaining
And I'm still wear a smile if it's raining
I got to enjoy myself regardless
I appreciate life, I'm so glad that it's fine

So I like what I see when I'm looking at me
When I'm walking past the mirror
Ain't worried about you and what you gonna do
I'm a lady so I must stay classy
Got to keep it hot, keep it together
If I want to get better
See I wouldn't change my life, my life's just...
Fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
Fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
Just fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
See I won't change my life, my life's just fine

I ain't gon' let nothing get in my way
(I ain't gone let nobody bring me down, no, no, no)
No matter what nobody has to say
(No way, no way, no way)
I ain't gon' let nothing get in my way
No matter what nobody has to say

Feels so good, when you're doing all the things that you want to do
Get the best out of life, treat yourself to something new It's a really good thing to say
That I won't change my life, my life's just fine

Fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
Fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
Just fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
See I won't change my life, my life's just fine

So I like what I see when I'm looking at me
When I'm walking past the mirror
Don't stress through the night, at a time in my life
Ain't worried about if you feel it

Got my head on straight, I got my vibe right
I ain?t gonna let you kill it
You see I wouldn?t change my life, my life?s just...

Fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
Fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh
Just fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, ooooh

You see I wouldn?t change my life, my life?s just fine
So I like what I see when I?m looking at me
When I?m walking past the mirror
Don't stress through the night, at a time in my life
Ain?t worried about if you feel it
Got my head on straight, I got my vibe right
I ain?t gonna let you kill it
You see I wouldn?t change my life, my life?s just...
Fineeeee...
