Verse 2

[Ja]

Mary baby

Sometimes the Rule don't mind the rain
It kinda feels like your drownin in the Lords pain
Until the sun comes out and shines again
Smile, give me reason to keep belivin
That everything ain't misleadin
And I, kiss the clouds on a rainy day
And, smile for you when ya skies are gray
Hey, cuz imma tear drop away from cryin
And few shots away from dyin
Dear Lord, would you shower my pain
Let it rain, let it rain on me
While I cherish the air I breathe
I'm an angel, that can't soar, can't fly
And I, imagine the Lord knows why

Chorus

Verse 3

[Mary]

I feel like an angel (Mend my broken wings)
So I can soar again (Lord let me in)
Baby through all the passion the pain and the hurt,
I feel like I'm fallin, Yeah
And givin love to those that, Spread love
And for those who can't take it , Stand up
Baby we gon make it
In the words of Marvin Gay
War is not the answer

Interlude

Chorus

[Mary]

Smile, smile, smile, smile, smile, smile, smile, smile,

Til the sun shines
Just smile for me
Just smile for me, just smile at me
Know in your heart that we are free
Free to believe, that whateva we feel
So feel something real, baby
