That was love, that was then
That was us, miracles
I changed you, you changed me
This is how these things go
I was broke and you were scared
But you stayed by my side, yeah

I was yours, you were mine
It seemed we'd last forever, oh yeah
I'd be the one you need, you would be the one I marry
And I'm just trying to invite my way back in your heart
And I'm telling you to

Come to me
I'll restore freedom
I'll carve away the worries in your heart

Your heart is missed, I'm a mess
What happened to second chance
This is now, this is how Easy things can get out of hand
We were cold and we were slow then
Now the end's faster than light, than light

And I'm not ashamed 'cause my love ain't changed
I'm prepared to beg you back the whole way
Bring me your arms, I'll bring mine too
And we will heal, mend, me and you, telling you

Come to me
I'll restore freedom
I'll carve away the worries in your heart
I'm telling you to

Come to me
I'll restore freedom
I'll carve away the worries in your heart

And now I'm here to make peace, peace, peace
I'm here to make peace, peace, peace
I'm here to make peace, peace, peace
I'm here to make peace, peace, peace between you

and I

Come in through my doors and take my hand
Replace our love beyond this land
Love, love

Let the air of your voice dry my tears
Let "I love you", fall on my ears
Love, love

I want you to just

Come to me
I'll restore freedom
I'll carve away your worries in your heart

And I'll be here to make peace, peace, peace
I'm here to make peace, peace, peace
I'm here to make peace, peace, peace
I'm here to make peace, peace, peace between you
and I

Wanna make peace with you, baby
I don't wanna fight, I just wanna do everything right
Show me how to make peace with you
I do wanna make peace with you
