I don't ask for too many things
Only one thing I really need
That is you, baby, next to me
With that I'm satisfied

Don't need diamonds, I don't need gold
I just need someone here to hold
To keep me warm when the nights are cold
That would do just fine, just fine

You don't have to promise me the stars
Just promise me love inside your heart
And that's enough
Baby, that's enough

(Give me you)
Give me you, give me all of you
(Give me night)
All my nights spent just holding you
(Give me day)
All my days being close to you
Nothing else that I need

(Give me you)
Give me you, give me all the love
(Give me time)
All your time, all your tender time
(All your heart)
All your soul, baby, that's enough
Nothing else that I need

Give me you, give me you
That's enough for me, baby

I don't need things that money buys
All I need is there in your eyes
I just need your heart next to mine
All my whole life through

You don't have to bring the moon to me
Just bring me the love, the love that I need
And that's enough

Ooh, baby, that's enough

(Give me you)

Give me you, give me all of you

(Give me night)

All my nights spent just holding you

(Give me day)

All my days being close to you

Nothing else that I need

(Give me you)

Give me you, give me all you love

(Give me time)

All your time, all your tender time

(All your heart)

All your soul, baby, that's enough

Nothing else that I need

Give me you, give me you

That's enough for me, baby

You don't have to promise me the stars

Just promise me that I have your heart

You don't have to bring the world to me

Just give me your word, you will never leave

'Cause having you beside me, I have everything I need

So give me, give me you

(Give me night)

All my nights spent just holding you

(Give me day)

All my days being close to you

Nothing else that I need, oh

(Give me you)

Give me you, give me all your love

(Give me time)

All your time, all your tender time

(All your heart)

All your soul, baby, that's enough

That's enough, nothing else that I need

Give me you

(Give me night)

All my nights spent just holding you

(Give me day)

All my days being close to you

Nothing else that I need, oh

(Give me you)

Give me you, give me all your love

(Give me time)
All your time, all your tender time
(All your heart)
All your soul, baby, that's enough
That's enough, nothing else that I need
Give me you
