You cast your charms into the blue
Oh, their broken arms opened for you
Circus creatures they march to their own tune
Bearded lady she?ll understand you

Hey, no, hey, hey, what?s left to hang on to?
Is all that?s left

Sink your ships into the deep
Oh, there's a mermaid lips ever so sweet
Serpent gardens, no place for the poor boy
Siren tides in, washed up with no shore

Hey, no, hey, hey, what?s left to hang on to?

Hey, no, hey, hey, what?s left to hang on to?
Is all that?s left, is all that?s left
