Heh, yeah
Rule baby, heh
Mary J. Blige
Murda INC, smile

It's just those rainy days
Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun come out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for me

All of those rainy days
Spend ya lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at me

We were always livin' so crazy and sexy and cool
And we began to love it
(Began to love it)
Watchin' all of the heartache and pain of the world
And thinkin' nothin' of it
(Thinkin' nothin' of it)

And baby, I got love for you
And I know that you got me, baby
But every time the sun shines bright
It gets so cloudy

It's just those rainy days
Spend a lifetime tryin to wash away
Until the sun come out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for me

All of those rainy days
Spend ya lifetime tryin to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at me

Nobody loves the rain
Can't stand it
We know we've seen it before
Baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell ya before

About chasin' those waterfalls, yeah

Nobody loves the rain
Can't stand it
We know we've seen it before
Baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell ya before
About chasin' those waterfalls, yeah

Yea baby, sometimes the Rule don't mind the rain
It kinda feels like I'm drownin' in the Lords pain
Until the sun comes out and shines again
Smile and give me reason to keep believin'
That everything ain't misleadin'

And I, kiss the clouds on them rainy days
And, smile for you when ya skys are gray
Babe, 'cuz I'm a tear drop away from cryin'
And a few shots away from dyin'

Dear Lord, would you shower my pain
Let it rain, let it rain on me
While I cherish the air I breathe
I'm an angel, that can't soar, can't fly
And I, mastered it Lord knows why

It's just those rainy days
Spend a lifetime tryin to wash away
Until the sun come out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for me

All of those rainy days
Spend ya lifetime tryin to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at me

I feel like an angel with my broken wings
So I can soar again, Lord let me in
Baby through all the passion the pain and the hurt
I feel like I'm fallin', yeah

Makin' clothes for all of those that spread love
And for those who can't take it, stand up
Baby, we gonna make it
In the words of Marvin Gaye
War is not the answer

'Cuz nobody loves the rain
Can't stand it
We know we've seen it before
Baby, handle it

Baby, what did we tell ya before
About chasin' those waterfalls, yeah

Nobody loves the rain
Can't stand it
We know we've seen it before
Baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell ya before
About chasin' those waterfalls, yeah

It's just those rainy days
Spend a lifetime tryin to wash away
Until the sun come out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for me

All of those rainy days
Spend ya lifetime tryin to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at me

Smile, smile, smile, smile
Till the sun shines, just smile for me
Just smile for me, just smile at me

Know in your heart, that we are free
Free to believe, whatever we feel
So feel somethin' real, baby, hey-ey
