You tried to tell me once
But I would not listen
You tried to tell me again
But I could not hear
Then you brought her around
And now I see everything
All too clear
But don't think for a minute you can hurt me
'Cause I see a future and all it sees is me
CHORUS
Hey, hey, hey this time will go by
You will never ever see me cry
And now for the secret I've been keeping
Can I speak out now while everybody's sleeping?
There are these things
And some call 'em friends
And we could talk all night
'Til all talk ends
I could never say this before
I just look in your eyes and I adore you
But don't think for a minute you can hurt me
'Cause I see a future
And all it sees is me
CHORUS
Now you've looked at me once
And you that you see
But you could stare all night and never know me
I could never say this before
I just look in your eyes and I adore you
But don't think for a minute you can hurt me
'Cause I see a future
And all it sees is me
Hey, hey, hey this time will go by
And you will never see me cry
And now for the secret I've been keeping
Can I sneak out now while everybody's sleeping
Everybody's sleeping
Is everybody sleeping?
Is everybody sleeping?
I sleep too
I sleep with you
