Take what you will from me
Leave me in disbelief
You move in ways unseen
When I rise from the debris

You'll stand by me

All these things that we do
Are built now to point towards you
A lifetime of chasing truth
Long after this is new

I'll stand by you

And I don't need your fame
So what else can you offer me?
If you don't know my name
It doesn't change who I've come to be
So now I pray
Help me be all that I can be
And make my way

And stand by me

I'm safe as far as I can see
And there's no place that I could be
But right here - and I will stand

I'm safe as far as I can see
And there's no place that I could be
But right here - and I will stand
