Wake up,

The morning's over.

The bed is soft and warm,

Where we lay.

I've dreamed the whole night through,

Of how I'd say to you,

All the things,

My heart wants to say.

Last night,

You heard me crying,

'Cause I had never loved a man,

Before.

And I guess the tears were falling,

'Cause the little girl was lost,

But now love,

I'm not crying any more.

This girl has turned into a woman.

And I've dreamed of this moment,

All my life.

This girl has turned into a woman.

And I thank you,

For your tenderness,
Last night.
I've never a man,
Lying on my pillow.
I've never seen your body,
Without clothes.
I can't believe,
These feelings I've discovered.
Though I'm sure it's just,
What every lover knows.
Now I'm offering to you,
I make a promise,
And? was gone tomorrow,
Don't pretend.
But right now I'm in love,
And that's all I'm thinking of.
And I hope this feeling,
Never ever ends.
This girl has turned into a woman.
And I've dreamed of this moment,
All my life.
This girl has turned into a woman.
And I thank you,
For your tenderness last night.
And I want to love you,

Once again,

Tonight.
