(HOOK) You make me happy, Happy that I couldn't, love me without you, Anit no one out there that can, Do me like you do, And I cant't help but smile, when I think about, Cause yo make me so happy.

I'm happy cause i'm around you But I still feel alone I'm mad for 1 man 2 kids and a dog don't make no house a home but I found out that I just can't be without you beside me there's no doubt that your love has turned my life around.

(hook)

I got more friends than I can count and I just fell in love, my career anit doing so bad right now but nothing compares to ya. You bring me joy I can't explain even if I had the time, you put a big smile on my face everytime you come to mind.

(hook)

I could never never find another soul cause there is no other that makes me feel this who picks me up when i'm down who makes me smile when I frown who makes the love go around and i just wanna say

(hook until fade out)
