I don't give a damn what it's all about I just wanna see how it all turns out mind's skin tight but my skin's so loose everclear is apple juice I'm swinging on a liquid noose get me drunk and get in line everybody's valentine meet me in a few more sips kiss my red apocalypse

I will never be ignored
I may be a slut but I'm never bored I'll go down on anything cage that bird and watch her sing high on life but it's not mine everybody's valentine

damaged goods all bought and sold cunt's cast iron but my heart's pure gold drunk is... opening a wound half healed drunk is... every little fantasy revealed drunk is... babble on til' everybody thinks they see your soul drunk is... going from control freak to a freak with no control fill my hole with cum and wine I'm everybody's valentine this bitter little mouth is my only claim to fame cause once you've given head nothing ever tastes the same

drunk is... every bit of cruelty revealed drunk is... turning my shame into my pride drunk is... always a bridesmaid never a bride
