You keep me in suspense, boy (x2)
But I'll be loving you till the day I die
Seems I'll be loving you & I don't know why
'Cause you never say you want you
But still you tease & taunt me
Well you had better make up your mind
I guess I'm just a-wastin' my time, 'cause...

You keep me in suspense, boy (x2)
But I'm so in love with you till it makes me blue
But I can't help myself, for what else can I do?
When you let me take a rope, boy
But you never never give me hope, boy
Well I'm gonna get to you yet
& that's one thing that you can bet

So keep me in suspense, boy
Just keep me in suspense, boy
So I may be near to you whenever I'm inclined
So I may be dear to you should you make up your mind
That you feel the same way too
Oh only you can turn on all my alarms
But just takin' me in your arms
& what you want I just can't see
It's a mystery to me, oh it's a mystery to me, oh

(repeat & fade):
Just keep me in suspense, boy
