(Love letter, love letter)

Today I received a letter; I hoped it would make me feel better

'Cause you see, I have a lover & he's gone so far from me

Leavin' me with so many memories

Seems like only yesterday he wrote & told me

How lonely one man could be

& if he could just get back home

Never more would he roam

No more would he roam

Love letter (love letter) (x3)

What's this I'm reading now? I can't believe my eyes somehow

Since he's mad about a girl & that she's his whole new world

That girl's his whole new world

& at a time like this, I feel bad to think of all the joy we had

All the good times we shared, all our dreams lay dead

So many heartaches ahead, ooo

Love letter (love letter) (x2)

& in conclusion of his letter, he asked "Please don't reply

'Cause the answer to your question: yes, this is goodbye

Yes, this is goodbye" ooo

Love letter (love letter) (x2)

Oh goodbye, my love letter

Please don't cry, my love

He sent me a love letter

...& fade
