What are you gonna do when I'm gone? Who's shoulder are you gonna cry on? What are you gonna do on the day when I turn my head and just walk away now What are you gonna say to your friends when the talk around town begins? Will you tell them how you treated me bad will you tell them how you made me so sad cause you make some people think that you love me alot they just don't know you and what they see isn't what we've got we're happy in the public eye they think you're such a wonderful guy but they don't know how much you lied and they don't know how much I've cried you're a real Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde you make a pass at every girl that you see then when they hurt you you come right back crying to me I comfort you whenever you're low and you don't have no place you can go you put your head on my shoulder to cry and then you turn around and tell me a lie and I just can't take it I've gotta make it now what are you gonna do when I'm gone, What are you gonna do when I'm gone(fade)
