I'll get it.
Me too.
Do the Olsen Twins live here?
Yes sir.
Well, howdy ma'am and ma'am.
Howdy.
My name is Bako Stakes and those are my men on horses over there, we have four thousand head of cattle we have to drive to Abilene by nightfall. I was wondering if you two would mind if we drove our cattle through your living room and out your back door. It would save us a lot of time.
Well, if it will help.
Should we move the furniture?
No need, my men'll be careful. Okay boys, move 'em on through.

Stand out of the way, girls.
Girls, what's going on down there?
Nothing mom.
