I wanna wake up before the roosters,
I wanna fire up those mighty boosters.
I feel fine, the universe is mine on ignition,
We are two kids with the mission.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon,
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
We were born for greatness,
Nothing picayune.
We're gonna leave out footprints on the moon.
I wanna suck my lunch from plastic packets,
I want life supports in all my jackets.
We can see how proud we're gonna be as commanders,
Of that descending lunar lander.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon,
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
I'm a rocket baby,
I sing a rocket tune.
We're gonna leave out footprints on the moon.
I'm gonna floor that accelerator,
I'm gonna buzz through a lunar crater.
Check that crust!
So crumbly and dusty and rocky,
It's cool to be a rocket jockey.
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon,
We're gonna leave our footprints on the moon.
We were born to follow,
In the foot steps of Apollo.
We're gonna leave out footprints on the moon.
We're gonna leave out footprints on the moon.
