If you go away for the holiday Santa can track you down
If your visiting Grandma in Alabama he'll know your out of town
In a far off place he'll be on your case with a doll or toy guitar
Cos the guy in red with the giant sled always knows where you are

What if your in the hospital, would he find you there?
You bet!
What if you moved on christmas eve?
Change of address, no sweat On a dessert isle or lost in space or somewhere that has no fireplace Relax, no prob, hey that's Santa's job

Got a reindeer team on a radar beam thats knocking on your address

Delivering toys for the girls and boys, one hundred per cent success
If your on a ship or a camping trip or a speeding rail road car
The guy in red with the giant sled always knows where you are
The guy in red with the giant sled always knows where
you are
Santa knows where you are Merry Christmas everybody
