chorus

come as you are, express yourself, any way you choose come as you are, and there's no way that you can lose

now it occurred to me not too long ago that the styles we wear, well they come and go but each and every one in their own special way express in many styles what we feel today hey!

the fifties preppies never really went away the sixties hippies, well they are still seen today the seventies meant dancing to a disco beat the eighties styles were crazy, and big hair the scene hey!

decades past give inspiration to the styles we choose for exploration

chorus

now the nineties are upon with the styles all their own retro from the older times, hip hop and the grunge so it seems that as we inch towards year two triple zero
it's up to us to take the stage as individuals hey!

it's the time for our new generation to express ourselves through inspiration chorus (x2)
