rootbeer floats, banna boats, gelate and sorbet are hard to resist what if they didn't exist? for me it wouldn't be easy cause you see...

chorus

I'm ice cream crazy, no if's, and's, but's or maybes ice cream crazy cause I'm an ice cream baby we have colors of the rainbow from all around the world and anything you'd like to try, you can have it plain or swirled with a pinch and a dash of this and that on a cone it does a balancing act and ooh, ya know it's bound to doop, yamma dum dum it's a triple scoop

chorus

sometimes I just can't decide what flaver I shoud choose so I close my eyes and one, two, three, I know that I can't lose with a pinch and a dash of this and that, till the cherry on top is an acrobat yamma dum dum, just look at that sundae my darlin someday if you weigh more than you should, it's ok cause I would make your sundae with no fat, low cal sorbet!
