The hunger inside, given to me makes me what I am Always it is calling me for the blood of man

They say I cannot be this, I am jaded, hiding from the day
I can't bear, I cannot tame the hunger in me
Oh, I say I did it always searching
You can't fuck with fate, so instead you'll taste my pain

The hunger inside, given to me makes me feel alive
Always out, stalking prey in the dark I hide
Feeling, falling, hating, feel like I am fading
Hating life

They say I cannot be this, I am jaded, hiding from the
I can't bear, I cannot tame the hunger in me
Oh, I say I did it always searching
You can't fuck with fate, so instead you'll taste my pain

You say your life I'm taking always bothering me I can't take this anymore, I'm failing, always smothering me
You look down on me ain't what you see
Take this gift from me, you will soon become me

Nothing seems exciting always the same hiding, hiding
It's haunting me, it's haunting me, it's haunting me
It's haunting me, it's haunting me
