Can't promise you no pain no tears, oh no
Can't say you'll never be lonely again my friend
But you see there's a remedy
There's someone whose has everythin' you need
And if you hear what I'm sayin' I'm sure you'll agree that

Trouble ain't goin' be here everyday
Even though sometimes it seems like it won't go away
After you've done all that you know how just to keep
from breakin' down
Just believe it's gonna get much better after a while

Sometimes I sit back and I think about Where I've been and where I am right now
See I wasn't quite sure you could hear me callin'
But you were there to catch me when I was fallin' so I know

Trouble ain't goin' be here everyday
Even though sometimes it seems like it won't go away
After you've done all that you know how just to keep
from breakin' down
Just believe it's gonna get much better after a while

Trouble ain't gon' be here everyday
Even though sometimes it seems like it won't go away
After you've done all that you know how just to keep
from breakin' down
Just believe it's gonna get much better after a while

Sometimes we may just want to cry
Then you tell me it's gonna be alright
You can't go through life livin' problem free
But you got to keep the faith and you got to believe

So the next time you're feelin' a little frustration
And you goin' through a bad situation
Remind yourself that it won't last for long Soon it will be over and you'll be movin' 'cause

Trouble ain't goin' be here everyday

Even though sometimes it seems like it won't go away
After you've done all that you know how just to keep
from breakin' down
Just believe it's gonna get much better after a while

Trouble ain't goin' be here everyday
Even though sometimes it seems like it won't go away
After you've done all that you know how just to keep
from breakin' down
Just believe it's gonna get much better after a while

Trouble ain't goin' be here everyday
Even though sometimes it seems like it won't go away
After you've done all that you know how just to keep
from breakin' down
Just believe it's gonna get much better after a while
