[Intro:]

I gave you all of me, I didn't hesitate. But you took it and ran with it, now its to late and im not coming back. Things wont be the same and theres nothing else for me to say.

[Chours:]

You used to love me, hold me, touch me, squeeze me, now you just want to descieve me. I don't know whats going on, i dont know what went wrong. You used to tell me that you would never leave me, all you wanted was to please me.

I Dont know whats going on, I dont know what just went wrong.

[Verse:]

He was the quiet type, the down low type, but you always had something on your mind. And you had me fooled for a little while, but being blind was never my style. So many times before, I would let it slide, hes coming in late with no alibi. All them times you lied, I just don't understand you said you was my man, but you cant be a man.

[Chorus]

You used to hold me tight, Kiss me in the night, now all you want to do is start a fight. If im not right for you, then you should let me know cuz' I just dont wana cry no more. I gave you all of me, I didn't hesitate. But you took it and ran with it, now its to late and im not coming back. Things wont be the same and theres nothing else for me to say.
