

Mason Jennings

"Sorry Signs On Cash Machines"

Visit "Sorry Signs On Cash Machines" on MotoLyrics.com

Oh, my heart is a thoroughbred
I can't sleep in my bed
Everything is burning up inside me

I need something I can feel Cigarettes and a driving wheel and
Oh, my God, when you cross your legs beside me

I know true love don't love like anybody else
I know your heart don't beat like anybody else

When it all comes down to kerosene
And sorry signs on cash machines
And it don't look like anything you've dreamed of

I won't let you give it up
With sorry sighs and forced bad luck
Come on baby, let's see what we're made of

I know true love don't love like anybody else
I know your heart don't beat like anybody else

And all these burning battlefields are now behind us
Life has brought us here together to remind us
That love will rise above it all and just keep growing
Life keeps flowing and every moment starts right here
with us

I know true love don't love like anybody else
I know your heart don't beat like anybody else

And all these burning battlefields are now behind us
Life has brought us here together to remind us
That love will rise above it all and just keep growing
Life keeps flowing and every moment starts right here
with us

Visit Mason Jennings page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.