

Masque "Time To Burn"

Visit "Time To Burn" on MotoLyrics.com

It casts a light of beauty and grace
So now everything fades away
The impulsive laughs make nights become days
Now it's time to burn
Now's my turn
No more shortcuts for me
No more desperate acts
Something to worship and something to give Something to leave and something to live

Here we stand
>From here we go
The unexpected was expected to come
I cast away my fortune of gold
I cast away my invisible mask
Smile at you. I see you're getting old
(Music and words: Rellmark)
