In a land of darkness
Only war makes them live
No one knows who they are
It's too late to know it
Death warriors without fear
Destroying all around
They are back, back to kill
With violence and bloodshed
Only death in their souls
Just madness in their brains
No escape you will die
Nobody will survive
Death warriors without fear
Destroying all around
They are back, back to kill
With violence and bloodshed
They're slaves to death, ravaging with death in their side (bis)
Stand in their way
Or run away
They're back to slay
Keep out of their way

It's time to pray
They're here to stay
In the dark of the night
They are back to attack
Hear their screams Hear your cries
No pity people die
Death warriors without fear
Destroying all around
Now you know who they are Eternal ghosts of war
They're slaves of death, ravaging with death in their sides (bis)
Stand in their way
Or run away
They're back to slay
Keep out of their way
It's time to pray
They're here to stay
