

Massacra "Enjoy The Violence"

Visit "Enjoy The Violence" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm the dictates of your guilty conscience
You must comply to my evil influence
You'd like to throw your boss out of the window
Show no mercy and cut him up with a chainsaw

You can't bear this rep bothering your wife
Rip him open with a carving knife
You wonder how to kill your enemy
Smash his head until it's gravy

You take pleasure in using violence
It's in your nature, psychopathic sense

Psychological conflict
You're under my influence
You can't repress your instinct
I incite you to violence
Enjoy the violence

I control your inward rage
You can't suppress your anger
I possess you, I'm your cage
You feel an urge to murder

You take pleasure in using violence
It's in your nature, psychopathic sense

I'm the dictates of your guilty conscience
You must not comply to my evil influence
Your neighbor is always fucking you around
Put your fingers in his eyes and scratch them out

You hate the collector and the income tax
Keep your money and cut him to pieces with an axe
You've had enough of cops and parking tickets
Take your gun and riddle them with bullets

You take pleasure in using violence
It's in your nature, psychopathic sense

Prompted my brutal force
You commit crimes in cold blood

With no feeling of remorse
You're always thirsting for some more
Enjoy the violence
