(Lyrics : Greg Conan / Chris Palengat)

Reality is more cruel than fiction

It is beyond all imagination

Hate is a reality

And violence a sin

Don't run in the face of the enemy

Because it comes from within

Don't pass over it silence

Cause it's a matter of consciousness

War is a reality

And torture a friend

Our lyrics are pleasant

Compared to the end

Evidence of abominations

Open your eyes

It's an actual fact

Existence of abominations

Don't close your eyes

It's time to react

Indifference is your excuse

And ignorance your refuge

The face of the evidence

Is as sad as your true
