(Lyrics : Chris Palengat)

Gang rape victims you suffer from an emotional trauma

Inwardly possessed with panic

Terrorized now you're neurotically seized with frigth

On the brink of a coma

Overcome with fear

And dread you withdraw into silence

Blank look, you're soulness, violated innocence

This mental scar is engraved on your memory

The rest of your life will be an endless agony

Living with your scare, it's a perpetual nightmare

You withdraw into yourself

Traumatic fear

Deep seated fright

Traumatic fear

Rooted phobia

Haunted by fear it was left you a vegetable

Paralysed, terrified, you're got a mental block

You're caught in a vicious circle

Prisoner of this state of shock

Living with scare, it's a perpetual nightmare

And you sink into madness

Overcome with fear and dread you withdraw

Into silence

Blank look, you're soulness, violeted innocence

This mental scar is engraved on your memory

The rest of your life will be and endless agony

After effect, you're a prey to hallucinations

And a look of terror is frozen on your face

Obsessed with macabre visions

You're in a delirium of fear

Traumatic fear

Deep seated frigth

Traumatic fear

Rooted phobia
