(Lyrics : Greg Conan)

I want to leave here, before it's too late

Open my arms and embrace my fate

Rocked in the cradle, and then

Drowned in hell's lake

When I go the earth will shake

Into the darkness ! I thrust my sword

I curse at you ! Almighty lord

I'm the forgotten one, who has no name

The bastard son, who feels no pain

One of four, one of a kind

One of those, lost in time

I've taken too much of this, and drank

Too much of that

I'll vomit it all up, and we'll all take a bath

I crap on your systems and your faces

The difference form right and the knowledge of wrong

Are the lessons you know, when you're dead and gone

Feeling of pleasure and feelings of pain

Are the sensations, just part of the game

Into the darkness ! Thrust my sword

I come to thee ! Almighty lord

Like a switch a blade that knows where to go

I'll spill your blood, and demand some more
