Open your eyes, we're living in a lie
The order has spoken, it's time to listen,
Open your eyes, we're living in a lie
The order has spoken, it's time to listen,

Pray for the end
The end is near
(The end is near)
Pray for the end
The end is near
(The end is near)

Lets play a game, of hide and seek
Where I'll seek, and you will peek
Lets play a game, of hide and seek
Where I'll seek, and you will peek

I'm trapped beneath your feet,
This will be our last tragedy

Our eyes will shine but
These diamonds wont be here forever again

Orders are orders, and rules are rules
Once you break it, you'll never get through

You'll never get through

OH

I'll never back down
I'll never back down

Welcome to the end
There is no tomorrow

I'll never bow to your throne
Let's tear down this destruction

You have always been the answer
Behind these unbreakable walls

Hold up our daggers high
Like the rest of us should Your misguided ghost haunts everyone like they're good.

This will be our last (our tragedy)
This will be our last (our tragedy)

Our eyes will shine but
These diamonds wont be here forever again

Orders are orders, and rules are rules
Once you break it, you'll never get through

The time has come
Obey the order

OH

You took everything from me
My life, my soul, my beliefs
You took everything from me
My life, my soul, my beliefs

You took everything from me
You took everything from me

You took everything from me
My life, my soul, my beliefs
You took everything from me
My life, my soul, my beliefs
