Girl, im going out of my mind, and even though i dont really know you and plus i feel im running out of time im waiting 4 the moment i can show u.. and babygirl i want u 2 know, im watching you go, im watching you pass me by,
its real love that u dont know about baby i was there all alone, when you'd be doing things i would watch you id picture you n me all alone, im wishing u were someone i could talk 2 i gotta get you out of my head but baby girl i gotta see you once again(again)

its real love that u dont know about

and even though i dont really know you
im waiting 4 the moment i can show u..
and babygirl i want u 2 know, im watching you go,
im watching you pass me by,

Every now and now i go to sleep, i couldnt stop dreaming about u, u're love is got me feeling kind a weak i really cant see me without you and now u are running around in my head i never gonna let u slip away again, again

i wish that i could tell you that i want you if i can have the chance to talk wich ya if i get up the chance to walk wich you then i would stop holding it in and never have to go through this again (again)

im waiting 4 the moment i can show u..
and babygirl i want u 2 know, im watching you go,
im watching you pass me by,

Today when i saw you alone i knew i had to come up and approach you coz girl i really gotta let you know all about the things you made me go through and now she looking at me in the eye and now you got me open and now you dreaming again(again)
its real love that you dont know about

if i can have the chance to talk to with you if i get up the chance to walk with you
