(what happend?)
(its the R&B)
(why aren't we ppl lookin' like the same no more?)

[Massari]

[intro]

waynik ya dunya wein?
were living life in the shadows the rain in the clouds wont clear tryin to survive this battle

waynik ya dunya wein?
why do our dreams get shattered why is there so much hate let ppl die like it don't matter

waynik ya dunya wein?
everybody get together
we need the truth right now we cant take no more pain keep our heads high i gotta try to make it through some how

waynik ya dunya wein?
we cant stand by and watch
the whole world fall right now and all we do is all for change im closin my eyes tryna fade away

[Belly]

wow
im tryin to relax here i feel like the worlds fallin off the axis we all know where im from but the fact is u think u saw a saint in the cactus the world's killers and terrorists, suicide bombers Osama's screaming death treats in arabic they dont tell u about the treasure we inherited (its beautiful)
we got the whole world sharing with Iraq's garden, the pyramids in Egypt, palestinian saw the the birth place of Jesus, (Lebanon)

the accomplishments of phenicians most prophets come from these regions Me, I try to swallow my pride but it hurts though the vicious circle of the earth, it turns slow sit back and let the Shishan burn slow we need your help, ask myself where the world go

[Massari]

waynik ya dunya wein?
everybody get together

to make it through somehow

waynik ya dunya wein?
we cant stand by and watch
the whole world fall right now
and all we do is all for change
im closin my eyes tryna fade away

[Belly]

In my heart where I keep the land, Left arm where I keep the dove,
The artwork mean peace and love, Don't nobody got no love,
Our hearts should have froze Cause the people with cold blood, You don't know how freedom should taste,
Its the people that face,
The consequences of the leader's mistakes, We're not evil, we're people of race, Don't preach us, speak the truth so people relate, how many decades were taught for racism to fade, and now u're gonna change the books, Now I need permission anywhere I lay my foot, Interrogated on the basis of the way I look,
I don't gotta be a psychic, (we invented zero)
Now you wanna treat us like it?
Algebra to the science, and the stars are priceless,
We helped invent life,
How they got us feel unlifeless?

[Massari]

waynik ya dunya wein?
(waynik ya dunya)
everybody get together
we need the truth right now
we cant take no more pain (no no no no no more pain)
keep our heads high I gotta try
to make it through somehow

waynik ya dunya wein?
we cant stand by and watch
the whole world fall right now
and all we do is all for change
im closin my eyes tryna fade away
