Can you hear me calling out?
I feel like these four walls are closing in
And girl I'm going in circles for you
And girl I just don't know where to begin
Feels just like I'm lost inside myself
Searching and I see nobody else
Girl I am nothing not without you, uh, yeah

I'm all out of love, I need your anchor girl I'm falling
Just a little love, cause you're the one that I'll be calling
I'm all out of love, I need your anchor girl I'm falling
Just a little love, cause you're the one I'll be calling
Running for you baby, heart is calling, for you baby
Calling, heart is calling, for you baby, calling, heart is calling ,for you, uh yeah

I'm sailing out to sea without a sail
My heart's been broken baby can't you tell?
So girl I'll be forever loving you
Can you hear me babe cause my soul is calling you

Can you hear me calling out?
I feel like these four walls are closing in
And girl I'm going circles for you
And girl I just don't know where to begin
Feels just like I'm lost inside myself
Searching and I see nobody else
Girl I am nothing not without you, uh, yeah

I'm all out of love, I need your anchor girl I'm falling
Just a little love, cause you're the one that I'll be calling
I'm all out of love, I need your anchor girl I'm falling
Just a little love, cause you're the one that I'll be calling
Running for you baby, heart is calling, for you baby
Calling, heart is calling, for you baby, calling, heart is
calling ,for you, uh yeah heart is calling, heart is calling, heart is calling for you, uh.
