In the midst of a stormy winters night
When you're out in the cold
Who do you turn to, to make you feel warm?

When you've done everything that you can do
And it's still not enough
Who's gonna be there, to save you from the fall?

Listen to his still small voice that calls from inside
It will lead you to the truth that only he can provide Let the weight of the world be lifted by the love he has shown
For it is finished, no longer will our lives be our own

It is done, it was a miracle of love
It is done, given to us from above
'Cause life has not meaning if we're living apart
He came to carry all the cares of my heart
It is done

When the world has a way of making us feel lost and alone
Who do you turn to, to make you feel strong?
And when the path that we have chosen seems to lead us astray
Who's gonna guide you back, back where we belong?

And don't try to win what has already been won Because your life had been redeemed before it ever began
Lay down your life, let the old man die
You can't do it on you won so don't even try
It is done

It is done, it was a miracle of love
It is done, given to us from above
'Cause life has not meaning if we're living apart
He came to carry all the cares of my heart
It is done

It is done, it was a miracle of love
It is done, a new life has begun

'Cause life has no meaning if we're living apart
He came to carry all the cares of my heart
It is done
