Don't you need a little love and understanding,
cause you know that life can get a little too demanding.
When the hardest thing to do is turn and walk away,
Wen there's nothing that anyone can do or say,
Your life is not your own,
So when you're all alone

Chorus:

Tell Him when your heart is crying, when on the inside
you are dying.
Just call out the name of the one who holds you in his hands.
Time t give it all away and not hold on to yesterday.
It's time to lay your life

Are you caught up in the day to day illusions.
Don't be fooled to think the world can offer you solutions.
Will you let Him take control, when life has taken its toll.

(Chorus)
