Came into my life and you touched my heart
Never had a struggle but it's always been hard
A relationship of souls, that's what we got
Time after time, this drove us apart
I have been the leader, you made me a saint
You kicked me in the dirt, I drove you insane
We got divorced for a several times,
But we always came back, we held the line
A lot of things in common we had
A thousand times we've been mislead
So many times we hit the point
We had a lot of fun, we had a lot of join
You are a fighter, so am I
We're sensitive but not too shy
Battlefields we never left
Even if I ment that we'd have to cry

And I need you, here beside me
Wanna hold you, never let you go
I will love you, that's forever
In my heart
Yes I know you, know about you
Know it better than anyone
I'll stay with you, close as I can
To your soul

Time has come, you closed the door
You said that you don't wanna see me no more
I want you back more than others do
Please open up your eyes, it's all in you
There's nothing that you did than can't be forgiven
If love is strong enough, it makes it worth livin
Nothing to sentence, nothing is wrong
You can do it right, you can get it done
Come on now, please listen to me
Open up your eyes, let yourself see
Open your brain and open your heart,
Come back again, make a new start
Come on please, don't leave me here
Don't blame others, share your tears
Call me anytime you want

Please do it now, don't say don't
