Refrain:

And I need you, here beside me Wanna hold you, never let you go I will love you, that's forever in my heart, yes I know you know about you, know it better than anyone, I'll stay with you close as I can, to your soul

Rap 1

Came in to my life and you touched my heart never had a struggle but it's always been hard a relationship of souls, that's what we got time after time this drove us apart I have been the leader, you made me a saint you kicked me in the dirt, I drove you insane we got divorced for several times but we always came back, we held the line a lot of things in common we had a thousand times we've been mislead so many times we hit the point we had a lot of fun we had a lot of join you are a fighter so am I we're sensitive but not too shy battlefields we never left even if it meant that we'd have to cry

Rap 2

Time has come, you closed the door you said that you don't wanna see me no more I want you back than others do please open up your eyes it's all in you there's nothing that you did, that cant be forgiven if love is strong enough, it makes it worth livin'

Nothing is to sentence nothing is wrong you can't do it right, you can get it done come on now, please listen to me open up your eyes, let yourself see open your brain and open your heart come back again, make a new start come on please don't leave me here don't blame others, share your tears call me anytime you want please do it now, don't say "don't"
