In the night I search for light
I sail my dream to end between reality and fantasy
It saves me in my black hole

Fools awake all around lost and found
We burned in silence
Shocked this world rocked this life
It's our melody of sacrifice

I've cried me a lake of tears
But there was always a time for healing
One day I'll make it to the sun

Blow my winds blow
Stormy winds blow
All the way dreams will rain down

Fly my winds fly
I'll be soaring high my friend
Till the end

Walk with me I'll make you see
You can feel beyond the sorrow
Break the spell and burn your hell
Away from your tomorrow

If you wish upon a star
It makes no difference who you are
You'll make it to the sun

Blow your winds blow
All your winds blow
Clouds will stay but love will rain down

Fly your winds fly
In your deepest sky my friend
Your heart will dream again

One day our cry is done
There'll be a new beginning
Someday will make it to the sun

Blow our winds blow
Stormy winds blow
We'll be searching till the end
