Hmm
Blue day, and I face the world
One song and our lives are turning
It seems so far back when it all began
But time was closing in, now I'm a fading man

Kings and queens
Love and dreams
I was like Romeo and
Juliet was mine
Taken from the deepest sorrow
To the joys of tomorrow
We'll follow
A rainbow

You'll never walk alone
'Cause we're going home together
You'll never stand alone
Like a burning sun
You will be my friend
And sister till the end
I never cry alone
Ah

Lonely night and the starlight brings a feeling
Small and might, in a picture so revealing
It's all much clearer now; there'll be no return
So many moments passed us by
And we still got things to learn

Brave new time, I wish you well
When I can't hold on any longer
I hope you will tell
My story
With glory

Never walk alone
On your journey home forever
Never shine alone
Like a crying sun
Won't you be my friend

And angel til the end?
'Cause I can't love alone

Never walk alone
On this journey home to never
Never dream alone
Like a distant sun
I can be your friend
And brother till the end
Don't wanna die alone
