Don't stay run away
He has ordered assassination
Don't stay run away
The henchmen are gathered and waiting

Don't stay run away
Your role as usurper is found out
Don't stay run away
Czarina has warned of the danger

It's your own fault
This is what we wanted
It's your own fault
This is where we lay

Don't stay run away
He has ordered assassination
Don't stay run away
The henchmen are gathered and waiting

Don't stay run away
Your role as usurper is found out
Don't stay run away
Czarina has warned of the danger

It's your own fault
This is what we wanted
It's your own fault
This is where we lay

By the light of the moon
You must escape into the deep black of the night
Fight the devil inside
Enemies poison deep within my second sight
Wasting valuable time

Ride the tides of blood
Illumination
Beauties sudden hand
Shattered crown

Stretching arms up high

We're on our way out now
Leave the Czar to die

By the light of the moon
You must escape into the deep black of the night
Fight the devil inside
Enemies poison deep within my second sight
Wasting valuable time

Ride the tides of blood
Illumination
Beauties sudden hand
Shattered crown

We're on our way out now

Spiraling up through the crack in the sky
Leaving material world behind
I see your face in constellations
The martyr is ending his life for mine

Don't stay run away
He has ordered assassination
Don't stay run away

Don't stay run away
Your role as usurper is found out
Don't stay run away

It's your own fault
It's your own fault
