All of your ways and all your thunder
Got me in a haze running for cover.
Where we gonna go from here?
Where we gonna go from here?

Car lights in the driveway
I wonder who's going coming my way.
Tomorrow we're turning down the highway
With another bright stage on a weekday.
Green grass and a radio
Watching it fly past and away we go.
Seven hundred places, seven hundred faces more.

All of your ways and all your thunder
Got me in a haze running for cover.
Where we gonna go from here?
Where we gonna go from here?

The back of your eyes look like my mother's
When we talk you're like my brother.
Where we gonna go from here?
Where we gonna go from here?

Time is moving on our side
How could I miss you to another guy.
Pull of the ocean and the roaring tide
Is bigger than my eyes or my design.
Father got a best plan
Saving his daughter for the best man.
Seven hundred places seven hundred faces more.

All of your ways and all your thunder
Got me in a haze running for cover.
Where we gonna go from here?
Where we gonna go from here?

The back of your eyes look like my mother's
When we talk you're like my brother.
Where we gonna go from here?
Where we gonna go from here?

I've waited and I'll wait some more.
Won't see me knocking on another door.
But all this is crazy and amazing.
There's only one half of us that I'm saving.
So I'm praying just to let it go
Watch from a distance just to see you glow.
Seven hundred places seven hundred faces more.

All of your ways and all your thunder
Got me in a haze running for cover.
Where we gonna go from here?
Where we gonna go from here?

The back of your eyes look like my mother's
When we talk you're like my brother.
Where we gonna go from here?
Where we gonna go from here?
