This moment right here is it one we can suspend?
Your breath in mine tells me just where I have been
You know the song of a long lost cause
We're running in circles and coming back again

How could I go the long way
Taking the easy way down
If I was wrong would you show me
Where all that I lost can be found

'Cause you can shoot me straight
Straight to the heart 'cause you already have it
Say what you want to say
We're coming out of the grey
What goes around now
Is coming back down today
You can shoot me straight away

Don't want to fight and you don't want to lose control
We're losing light and the night is getting cold
Everyone wants to hear their story told
We're not the only ones, we're not the only ones

How could I go the long way
Taking the easy way down
If I was wrong would you show me
Where all that I lost can be found

'Cause you can shoot me straight
Straight to the heart 'cause you already have it
Say what you want to say
We're coming out of the grey
What goes around now
Is coming back down today
You can shoot me straight away

And you wanted to fly and leave it behind
But you know it's going to come back one day

'Cause you can shoot me straight
Straight to the heart 'cause you already have it
Say what you want to say

We're coming out of the grey
What goes around now
Is coming back down today
You can shoot me straight away
