Sinner

I see your face, smiling from a picture
I remember you, so many tears have fallen down

How long did I try to forget you
I throw away my pride, but the fire's still there

We hide our love and we'll find a way
But I don't need another heartbreak

Tear down the wall [2]
Tear down the wall and answer me
Tear down the wall [2]
Between us

Enough is enough, you took it too far
And I'd really sold my soul for you

How long 'til you wake up your mind
I can't wait any longer

If you're strong enough
Just call my name
But I don't need another heartbreak

Are you strong enough
Then call my name
But I don't need another heartbreak

3. Every Second Counts

[Sinner / Sinner, Geiger]

I saw you standing in the neon light

Just one look was enough
I get what I want and I wanted you bad
You really took me to the highest high
To the heart of the night
What a hell of a time I got with you

You gave me tears and I gave you my blood
An eye for an eye, I was yours

Ooh oh oh oh every second counts
I'll remember your face, when the truth comes out
Ooh oh oh oh every second counts
And you'll better learn what's it all about

I'm gonna take you where the sun goes down
I promise you
You'll be home before the break of dawn
But don't you ever try to hold me down
I got other plans and there's no one
Who should tell me what I should do

When the talk gets cheap
Then I'll see you twice
On the other side of heaven again
