These words, fall from your mouth, and stab me in the back

It should have never come to this

It's too late, for your apologies

They can't bring back all that you've taken from me

Stripped of my pride, and left for dead

This time is the last time I take this abuse

I've found my place, and this place is far away from you

How can you say, I'm at fault

The one to blame is you

Stripped of my pride, and left for dead

I'm so tired of apologizing to myself for you

And what you've done to me

And I've tried, to forgive myself for caring about you

There's nothing I can do

There's nothing I can do

There's nothing I can do

This time is the last time I take this abuse

I've found my place, and this place is far away from
you

I'm so tired of apologizing to myself for you

And what you've done to me

And I've tried, to forgive myself for caring about you

There's nothing I can do

I'm so tired of apologizing to myself for you

And what you've done to me

And I've tried, to forgive myself for caring about you

There's nothing I can do
