But whose counting, i just thought
I'd let you know.
I filled my head with your voice.
And now I'm drowning,
When I wrote this song for you.

You can stay tonight,
And make everything alright.
You can hold me down,
And tell me that you're right.
Tell me what it's like to be alone.

And we had this down,
Unlike everybody.
Well i'll spend a million nights
Just like tonight, you know
I scream your name at the sky,
Until I lost my voice.
Well I'd give my life for you

You can stay tonight,
And make everything alright.
You can hold me down,
And tell me that you're right.
Tell me what it's like to be alone.

You can stay tonight...

You can stay tonight,
And make everything alright.
You can hold me down,
And tell me that you're right.
Tell me what it's like to be alone.

You can stay tonight (you can stay tonight)
And make everything alright(everything)
...stay tonight
Tell what's like to be alone
