In the mean time
What's up brother? What's up dog?
You loog god men! Thanks man, I appreciate that!
What's going on? You're dress really fine man Got you're suit on, your three piece, you look good brother like a young Malcome Max before he get to prisson, my uncle when was in the dope game

You look really good! (You're fine!)
I 'aint going back with a ..interns, we only here for ..., you're dress way too nice for a minimal way man You know, I'm seing this, you settle down, come on here and do me a favor ..
This is tyhe job, make some real money man You got dancing plane? You 'aint got that when you're singing
Way you always got something to say everyday?
You won't be hear me, go to get you a sit and some pape and get back to work

Girl I have told you? I think that you're special Like rythm and read those I explore you, your hips turn into the rivers, you see me
...
My ways make you talk in language like spanish
You listen to Could Play and Dr. Grey Turn heads and swipping and turn back chance Seems like you're perfect in every way But the only other question it's how good, how good it's your love
Baby, how good it's your love, how good it's your love, baby, how good it's your love
In the mean time,
I like that you listen and grab my atention, with lips makes...
Maybe you lay in, I'm out to see
And all I want to do it's catch you to your bitch Fucks it's the way that you say my name Love how you roll up the perfect joint Seems like you're better then all the rest
But the only thing I'm thinking it's just how good,

How good it's your love, baby, how good it's your love,
how good it's your love, baby, how good it's your love
In the mean time, I guess we get to know each other Mean time, I guess we cross that bridge together Mean time, mean time, mean time, mean time
How good, how good, how good
I want you love baby, when your shit it's going down
I want you love baby, when it's going on the ground
How good it's your love, baby, how good it's your love,
how good it's your love, baby, how good it's your love,
how good it's your love, baby, how good it's your love
In the mean time...get back to work
