Let's make a cold idea warm in the back of the basement
Let's make a cold idea form in the back of our head
I spent a lot of days, lot of days with you
By now we got a taste of what a doublemind can do

We wait
We don't give up
We wait
We don't give up

Light it up, light it up to burn it down
Temporary's not my style
I draw them in and spit them out
Do what I've always done, always done with you
By now we got a taste of what a doublemind can do

We wait
We don't give up
We wait
We don't give up

Money, we don't need it
Money's raining down upon us
Oh the playing gets steady
Instead of pining for a moment of rest

So we wait
We don't give up
We wait
We don't give up

I've never waited on a quarterless drought
I've never waited for the numbers to be randomly drawn
But I remember selling out
But I had to make a fun living somehow

I make a living for now
Make a living for now
Make a living somehow

Money, we don't need it
For the money's raining down
The playing gets steady
Instead of pining for a moment of rest

The money, we don't need it
The money's raining down up on us
The playing gets steady
Instead of pining for a moment of rest

So we wait
We don't give up
We wait
We don't give up
We wait
