Forget all your politics for a while
Let the color schemes arrive
(x2)

Come onboard, it's a curious sight
Absorbing sound that's never been right
Never ahead of, never behind it Occasionally guarded, just keeps us surrounded It's luck

Everything's gonna get lighter, even if it never gets better

I propose a less serious boat
But don't mistake it for a party of jokes
Who are never ahead of, never behind us
Floating in circles there's more to remind them of less

Everything's gonna get lighter, even if it never gets
better

Forget your politics for a while
Let the color schemes arrive
(x6)

Everything's gonna get lighter, even if it never gets
better

better
