We had some good times we laught and we cried like kids on a holliday
So free partnes in crime like Bonnie and Clyde in our own hideaway

The castle we built was made of sand
The walls fell apart with the time

Somebody mentioned your name in some cafÃ©
It happened just the other day
It's strange how it all came back again
It's hard to explain but I still love you

Once upon a time I won't forget you were my sweetest pain
And now I had a sign like Scarlett and Red
I'm sure we will meet again

So if you believe in fairytales then all will be well in the end

Somebody mentioned your name in some cafÃ©
It happened just the other day
It's strange how it all came back again
It's hard to explain but I still love you

I nearly fainted when I heard your name And I new my eyes would betrade me (my eyes would betrade me)
From now on nothing will be the same
I just can't go on without you

Some body mentioned your name...

I still love you

It happened just the other day...
